

2011 International Conference on Information Technology Based Higher Education and Training, ITHET 2011

[No author name available]

Abstract: The proceedings contain 23 papers. The topics discussed include: creating a tool to support perseverance among post secondary students with learning difficulties; the dynamic content management system; relationship between programming concepts underlying programming skills; development of a digital communications course enriched by virtual and remote laboratory tools; preparing pre-service teachers: strategies for successful technology integration to improve teaching and learning; a study of the civil servants' continuance of using e-learning; enhancing students team work and communication skills in international settings; educational software to enhance English language teaching in primary school; IT-facilitated student assessment: outcome-based student grades; emerging models and e-infrastructures for teacher education; and proposal and development of reversal motion skill leaning support environment.

Year: 2011

Source title: 2011 International Conference on Information Technology Based Higher Education and Training, ITHET 2011

Page count: 141

Link: Scopus Link

Document Type: Conference Review

Source: Scopus

Authors with affiliations:

1. [No author name available]